

GALLERY PANGOLIN

The Stockroom

20th January - 16th March 2024

Over our 30-year history, Gallery Pangolin has worked with some of the foremost artists of our time, staging an impressive exhibition programme that demonstrates the breadth, quality and creativity of modern British and contemporary sculpture. Although the nature of exhibitions mean they are staged for a finite period of time, we hope that 'The Stockroom' will be an opportunity to revisit, reflect on, and view these works from Gallery Pangolin's history, seen from an intriguing new perspective.

This exhibition also presents a unique opportunity to view and purchase more artworks than ever, and in many cases, it will be the first chance to do this since the original exhibition, some as long as 25 years ago.

We will transform the Gallery into a 'behind-the-scenes' space as our Gallery store rooms are: with shelves, plan chests and open crates offering a chance to discover new artworks, artists and materials. Instead of being behind closed doors, this exhibition will reflect our store rooms as being locations of daily importance; constantly changing as a place of packing, handling, logistics and organisation.
